

A joint meeting of United Nations Association Cardiff & District Branch and CND Cymru, sponsored by Cardiff University Centre for Applied Ethics

presents

Incident in New Baghdad

Tuesday 24 April, 7pm

Committee Rm 1, Glamorgan Building, University of Cardiff

(a few yards from the Temple of Peace on King Edward VII Avenue)

Free Entry. All Welcome.

Special Sneak Preview screening of Jim Spione's acclaimed Oscar-nominated short documentary film about the notorious 2007 'Collateral Murder' Apache helicopter attack seen from the point of view of Ethan McCord, a US soldier on the ground now turned peace activist. The footage was allegedly leaked to WikiLeaks by Bradley Manning, the young US military intelligence analyst with Welsh roots who has been held without trial for nearly two years by the US.

Watch the film. Join in the discussion.

The meeting will be opened by Côr Cochion Caerdydd.

Events for Bradley Manning take place across Wales in April

Bradley Manning Support Events (Wales) are coordinating a series of events across Wales during April.

These are listed at:
wiseupforbradleymanning.wordpress.com.

for more details contact wiseupforbm@yahoo.com.

Tim Price's new play The Radicalisation of Bradley Manning is National Theatre Wales' latest production.

Haverfordwest: 12-14 April Cardiff: 17-21 April
Connah's Quay: 25-28 April

See:
nationaltheatrewales.org
for more details and booking info. Some performances will be live-streamed.