

United Nations Association Cardiff & District Branch and CND Cymru

present:

Incident in New Baghdad

Tuesday 24 April, 7pm

Temple of Peace, King Edward VII Ave, Cardiff CF10

Free Entry. All Welcome.

Shown with special permission of the Director, Jim Spione's acclaimed Oscar-nominated short documentary film about the notorious 2007 'Collateral Murder' Apache helicopter attack seen from the point of view of Ethan McCord, a US soldier on the ground now turned peace activist. The footage was allegedly leaked to WikiLeaks by Bradley Manning, the young US military intelligence analyst with Welsh roots who has been held without trial for nearly two years by the US.

Watch the film. Join in the discussion.

This meeting will be jointly chaired by UNA Cardiff & District Branch and CND Cymru and will be opened and closed by Côr Cochion Caerdydd.

Events for Bradley Manning take place across Wales in April

The Radicalisation of Bradley Manning, National Theatre Wales' new play, will be in Haverfordwest: 12-14 April

Cardiff: 17-21 April

Connah's Quay: 25-28 April

See:

nationaltheatrewales.org
for more details and booking info.

The network WISE Up for Bradley Manning is coordinating a series of events in Pembrokeshire, Cardiff and north east Wales of which this film is one.

See:

wiseupforbradleymanning.wordpress.com
for more details or contact wiseupforbm@yahoo.com.