ADVICE ON ARREST

Say "NO COMMENT" to all police questions during casual chats, 'booking in' and interviews. At the police station you may wish to give your name, address and date of birth to speed your release. If asked your nationality you must give it. For your protection and that of other people don't answer any further questions.

Do not accept a CAUTION without advice from a recommended solicitor. This is an admission of responsibility and goes on the police national computer.

You have the right to FREE LEGAL ADVICE at the police station. Duty solicitors don't always have experience with protest law, we recommend asking the police to contact one of the solicitors in the box opposite.

You have the right to have someone informed of your arrest (make that the Protest Support Line unless otherwise arranged: 07946 541 511).

You have the right to an interpreter if English is not your first language. If you are, or appear under 18, an appropriate adult should be called.
